

THE ARIZONA REPUBLIC

Auto recall
SLOWDOWN
Landmark construction of 2 dealerships on hold, B3

One team
6
Arizona

Health
6
Arizona

UP 100
6
Arizona

Auto recalls
BETTER DAYS
Solutions, entrepreneur Jackson in good terms, B3

BUSINESS

SECTION 3

PLAYOFFS EXTRA

BIG RED BOOST

As Cardinals fans celebrate team's unexpected run, retailers and West Valley enjoy financial

By Craig Morik and Rick Shuck
The Arizona Republic

While the economy continues to slide, retailers and West Valley are enjoying a boost. As Cardinals fans celebrate team's unexpected run, retailers and West Valley enjoy financial.

The Cardinals' unexpected run to the playoffs has been a boon for retailers and West Valley. The team's success has led to a surge in merchandise sales, and West Valley has seen a similar increase in sales.

INSIDE From the team's victory and...
A SECTION The Arizona Republic

BoFA, Citigroup facing crit

New losses may signal need to invest in business models

BoFA and Citigroup are facing criticism for their handling of the subprime mortgage crisis. Analysts are questioning their business models and how they have managed the crisis.

INSAN MOVES MARCH WORK

Insan is moving its headquarters to a new location in March. The company is excited about the new space and the opportunity to expand its operations.

Experts: Arizona recruiting

PHOENIX

Development parcel annexed

By Michael Casey
The Arizona Republic

Annexation is continuing at Channing Ranch in southern Phoenix. The Phoenix City Council completed the annexation of one parcel and began the process of annexing the second at a meeting on Wednesday.

The parcel in question is a 10-acre site located in the Channing Ranch area. The city is looking to develop this area into a new residential and commercial district.

SCOTTSDALE

City, Jackson getting along

By Peter Corbett
The Arizona Republic

All the tensions between Scottsdale and Jackson County are behind them. The two cities have reached an agreement on several key issues, including land use and infrastructure.

The agreement between Scottsdale and Jackson County is a significant step towards resolving long-standing tensions. Both cities are pleased with the outcome and look forward to a more collaborative future.

REGIONAL ROUNDUP

EAST VALLEY

1,117 seek jobs at new Hilton

By Paul Hunt
The Arizona Republic

The new Phoenix Hilton Hotel, scheduled to open soon, has attracted 1,117 job seekers. The hotel is expected to provide a significant boost to the local economy.

PHOENIX

Lund puts Loop 101 dealerships on hold

By Tom Larson
The Arizona Republic

Lund's Loop 101 dealerships are on hold. The company is currently reviewing the market conditions and the potential for success in this area.

The decision to put the Loop 101 dealerships on hold is a strategic move by Lund. The company is focusing on other areas where it has a stronger competitive advantage.

Northeast Valley

Crosby/Wright, a Scottsdale-based, luxury-brand public-relations and advertising agency, added the Shops On El Paseo, the luxury boutiques in Palm Desert on California's historic, high-end fashion boulevard, as a client.

Quality of life is a top priority for us, because we want to ensure that all of our employees and the City of Scottsdale are as satisfied as we are. Crosby/Wright is a leading public-relations and advertising agency, and we are pleased to have them as a client.

IN YOUR REGION

PLACE	THIS WEEK'S NEWS
Phoenix	• Signature-based Phoenix County... • Former health care... • Phoenix Health care... • Phoenix Health care...
Northeast Valley	• Crosby/Wright, a Scottsdale-based... • Crosby/Wright, a Scottsdale-based... • Crosby/Wright, a Scottsdale-based...
East Valley	• Former health care... • Former health care... • Former health care...

1.17.09
The Arizona Republic

PUBLIC RELATIONS. CREATIVE. MEDIA.